THE HORSEMAN

If you want to buy a Horse tell Me, Please.

The reason I ask you to tell me whether or not you want to buy a horse is this: Because I know I can and I will, if you will permit me, sell you the very horse you want and one that will satisfy you in every respect.

My long and varied experience with horses has given me a knowledge of them which enables me to be a competent judge of a horse.

Horses for all manner of work or livery hire can be had of me. My prices are what they should be. They represent the actual value of the animal.

Alonzo Bennett is on the sick list.

The missionary meeting with Mrs. Stith Friday was lovely throughout the whole day.

Did you good people see the notice of the Dist. S. S. in last week's News, to be held here May 17th? Don't forget about it.

Ray Keith continues to live in Los Angeles, Cal. His picture recently received is a fine looking young man of which we are justly proud.

Mrs. E. O. Perrin has returned to Irvington after a fortnight with relatives and friends here.

Misses Maypel and Raychel Stith are contemplating a trip to Arkansas to visit their sister, Mrs. Fountaine. They will take in the Fair at St. Louis on their return.

Strawberry beds are fine and some other fruits as well, though peaches are a thing of the past.

Hon. W. A. Stith's large new barn was entirely destroyed by fire Friday. There was some hay and 150 bushels of corn in the barn, all burned. Sparks from an engine caused the fire.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

When the Louisville & Evansville packet Tarascon arrived here yesterday morning on her down trip, she, and probably her crew and passengers, had had a very narrow escape from destruction. About 4 o'clock yesterday morning, as the Tarascon was near Concordia, fire broke out in the cook house and the flames spread quickly. The crew was prompt to respond to the alarm of fire and the blaze was extinguished, as it reached the hurricane deck. Prompt action alone saved the boat, as ten minutes' more start for the fire would have no doubt resulted in her total loss.

Louisville Live Stock Market.

Reported by Dan Brooks & Co. Central Stock Yards

Louisville, April 25.—Cattle—Arrivals were moderate. Market opened early and an active demand prevailed for all the offerings, values ruling strong 10 and 15c higher on all choice grades of butcher steers and heifers, while common and medium butchers showed more activity in moving, and an early clearance was made. Choice feeders and stockers were also in active demand; several loads of prime feeders sold at an advance of 15c over last Monday's prices; common kinds steady. Prime heavy shipping steers were in light supply and the feeling was strong 10c higher, and more could have been handled to good advantage. Market all around showed a healthy tone and buyers showed considerable activity from start to finish, market closing strong. Prospects for good market remainder of this week.

Calves—Market lightly supplied; choice light veals $4.50 a $5; common and heavy calves $3.50 a $4.25.

Hogs—Receipts were fairly liberal. Market opened with all the offerings selling at steady prices, choice corned hogs, 165 lbs. and up, selling at $5.10; light Yorkers $4.80; heavy pigs $4.30 a 4.40; light pigs $4; rough $4 a 4.60. Unfavorable reports from other markets, showing 10 a 15c decline caused our market to close weak, with prospects for lower prices.

Sheep and Lambs—All arrivals were ready sellers at quotations; an active demand prevailed for all fat sheep and butcher lambs; choice springers 7a10c, as to quality and weight.
